MICHAEL G. FRAMBERGER SEMINARS, INC. DEBUTS GET HAPPY, GET HEALTHY, BE WEALTHY PROGRAM IN CALIFORNIA

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif.—Michael G. Framberger Seminars, Inc. (MFSI), today announced their debut in California. The goal of the company, through multiple resources, is to assist business people, families and others in achieving greater fulfillment, self-actualization and improvement in their lives. The Get Happy, Get Healthy, Be Wealthy program is comprised of a book of the same name, seminars, an interactive website, e-zine, and newspaper column.

The seminar component is part of Framberger's commitment to giving back to the communities in which he has resided over the years as a successful and trusted businessman, colleague, volunteer, and friend. "It is through the inspiration of others that I have the ability to share my life-changing experiences and prepare a program for those seeking to maximize their own lives," said Framberger, President, MFSI.

The decision to create MFSI was by way of Framberger's mentors including award-winning authors and inspirational figures David Allen and Jack Canfield. "If happiness, improved health and greater wealth are your life goals, then this system can help you get there," said Jack Canfield, Co-Author, Chicken Soup for the Soul.

Seminars are offered statewide with three debut sites in Northern California:

- Friday, October 29, Westlake Village Inn, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Friday, November 5, Moby Dick on Sterns Wharf, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Friday, November 12, Shore Cliff, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The seminars include a healthy breakfast and lunch, plus a variety of materials and 52 weeks of follow-up coaching to ensure success. To register online visit, <http://www.gethappy-gethealthy-bewealthy.com/store/>.

Framberger has been in the insurance industry for over 25 years and has received numerous awards and recognition. He serves on many boards as an advisor and contributes to his community through many volunteer and fund-raising activities.
